THE COLLECTION

CHORAL ANTHEM DURING THE COLLECTION

Into the Woods my Master Went

Lainer, Hawes

*Into the woods my Master went,
Clean forspent, forspent.
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.
But the olives they were not blind to Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to Him:
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him
When into the woods He came.*

*Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content.
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.
When Death and Shame would woo Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him last:
'Twas on a tree they slew Him—last
When out of the woods He came.*

LORD'S PRAYER

COMMUNION PROCESSION

Stabat Mater Dolorosa

STABAT MATER

1. At the cross her station keeping, Stood the mournful Mother weeping, Close to Jesus to the last.
2. Through her heart, his sorrow sharing, All his bitter anguish bearing,
Now at length the sword has passed.
3. O how sad and sore distressed, Was that Mother highly blest
Of the sole begotten One!
4. Christ above in torment hangs, She beneath beholds the pangs
Of her dying, glorious Son.
5. Is there one who would not weep, Whelmed in miseries so deep,
Christ's dear Mother to behold?
6. Can the human heart refrain From partaking in her pain,
In that Mother's pain untold?
7. Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled, She beheld her tender Child,
All with bloody scourges rent.
8. For the sins of his own nation Saw him hang in desolation
Till his spirit forth he sent.
9. O thou Mother! Font of love, Touch my spirit from above,
Make my heart with thine accord.
10. Make me feel as thou hast felt; Make my soul to glow and melt
With the love of Christ, my Lord.
11. Holy Mother, pierce me through, In my heart each wound renew
Of my Savior crucified.
12. Let me share with thee his pain, Who for all my sins was slain,
Who for me in torment died.
13. Let me mingle tears with thee, Mourning him who mourned for me,
All the days that I may live.
14. By the cross with thee to stay; There with thee to weep and pray,
All I ask of thee to give.
15. Virgin of all Virgins best! Listen to my fond request:
Let me share thy grief divine.

Refrain

From the wounds of Christ flows glo-ry. From the side of Christ flows bless - ing. From com-pas-sion nailed up-on a cross, may we be - come what we gaze up - on.

• EXSULTET •

The Proclamation of Easter

Chant

Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven, exult, let Angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King's triumph!

Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad, knowing an end to gloom and darkness.

Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice, arrayed with the lightning of his glory, let this holy building shake with joy, filled with the mighty voices of the peoples.

It is truly right and just, with ardent love of mind and heart and with devoted service of our voice, to acclaim our God invisible, the almighty Father, and Jesus Christ, our Lord, his Son, his Only Begotten.

*Who for our sake paid Adam's debt to the eternal Father, and, pouring out his own dear Blood, wiped clean the record of our ancient sinfulness.
These then are the feasts of Passover, in which is slain the Lamb, the one true Lamb, whose Blood anoints the doorposts of believers.*

This is the night, when once you led our forebears, Israel's children, from slavery in Egypt and made them pass dry-shod through the Red Sea.

This is the night that with a pillar of fire banished the darkness of sin.

This is the night that which even now, throughout the world, sets Christian believers apart from worldly vices and from the gloom of sin, leading them to grace and joining them to his holy ones.

This is the night, when Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the underworld.

Our birth would have been no gain, had we not been redeemed.

O wonder of your humble care for us!

O love, O charity beyond all telling, to ransom a slave you gave away your Son!

O truly necessary sin of Adam, destroyed completely by the Death of Christ!

O happy fault that earned so great, so glorious a Redeemer!

O truly blessed night, worthy alone to know the time and hour when Christ rose from the underworld!

This is the night of which it is written: The night shall be as bright as day, dazzling is the night for me, and full of gladness.

The sanctifying power of this night dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to mourners, drives out hatred, fosters concord, and brings down the mighty.

*On this, your night of grace, O holy Father, accept this candle, a solemn offering,
the work of bees and of your servants' hands, an evening sacrifice of praise, this gift from your most holy Church.*

*But now we know the praises of this pillar, which glowing fire ignites for God's honor, a fire into many flames divided, yet never dimmed by sharing of its light, for it is fed by melting wax, drawn out by mother bees to build a torch so precious.
O truly blessed night, when things of heaven are wed to those of earth, and divine to the human.*

*Therefore, O Lord, we pray you that this candle, hallowed to the honor of your name, may persevere undimmed,
to overcome the darkness of this night.*

Receive it as a pleasing fragrance, and let it mingle with the lights of heaven.

*May this flame be found still burning by the Morning Star:
the one Morning Star who never sets, Christ your Son,
who, coming back from death's domain, has shed his peaceful light on humanity,
and lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.*
